

Sign Matching

Get familiar with the traffic signs around your neighbourhood for safe active travel

Adapted from activities and lesson plans produced by Safe Kids Canada

Please see: <http://www.safekidscanada.ca>
for more information

Draw a line between each sign and the best description for it.

- The sign is in the shape of a circle
- It is yellow and black
- Indicates there is a railway crossing

- The sign is in the shape of a pentagon
- It is yellow and black
- Indicates there is a school crosswalk

- The sign is in the shape of two rectangles
- It is green and white
- Indicates there is a separate pathway for bicycles

- A cyclist's hand signal
- Signals: "I am turning right"

- The sign is in the shape of an octagon
- It is red and white
- Means come to a complete stop at this intersection

- A cyclist's hand signal.
- Signals: "I am stopping"

- The sign is in the shape of a diamond
- It is yellow and black
- Indicates there are either bicycles or a bicycle crossing ahead

- The sign is in the shape of a triangle
- It is red and white
- Indicates to stop only when necessary to avoid interference with other traffic that has the right-of-way

- A cyclist's hand signal
- Signals: "I am turning left"